There is "a meeting of the Censors, in the town of Boston, for the examination of candidates for the practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery, on the Thursday next preceding the annual meeting of the Fellows of the Society; and on the day following the meeting of the Counsellors in October and February annually."

The 6th section of the By-Laws contains the following regulation.

"To promote the laudable design of the Legislature, in forming and incorporating this Society, to discourage empiricism, and to prevent, as far as may be, all unqualified persons from practising medicine or surgery; it shall be deemed disreputable, and shall be unlawful, for any Fellow of this Society, in the capacity of physician or surgeon, to advise or consult with any person, who shall hereafter commence the practice of medicine or surgery in this Commonwealth, unless he shall possess either one, or the other of the following qualifications.

"He shall have been duly examined and approbated by the Censors of the Society, or by those of some district Society; or shall have received a medical degree at Harvard University.

"Or should he have been educated in, or come from, some other state or foreign country, unless he shall have produced to the Censors of the Society, or those for the district, wherein he resides, satisfactory evidence of his qualifications for the practice of medicine of surgery."

"Or unless he shall be a Fellow of the Society, and shall not have been expelled therefrom."

The Convention of the Congregational Ministers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts where they are to be considered as Personal Estate.

IS a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, but vested with no particular authority or control over the Churches.

Their meeting is holden in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May, or day of Election annually; and the following day at eleven, A.M. after transacting the ususal business of the Convention, a sermon is delivered in Public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent widows of Congregational Clergymen.

Difficulties having often arisen in determining, what widows are the proper objects of the charity of this Convention, it was voted, June 1, 1815,—That a standing Committee of 30 be appointed, 5 of whom shall shall be

The General Association in Massachusettts.

THIS body was organized in June, 1805. In 1814, it consisted of Delegates from 12 Associations in Massachusetts Proper. Its members "admit, as articles of faith, the doctrines of Christianity, as they are generally expressed in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism," and consider these doctrines, which have been generally embraced by the Churches of New-England, as the "basis of their Union." This body wholly disclaims ecclesiastical power or authority over the Churches, or the opinions of individuals. The essential objects, as expressed in their Constitution, are "to promote brotherly intercourse and harmony, and their mutual animation, assistance and usefulness as ministers of Christ; to obtain religious information relative to the state of their particular churches, and of the general state of the Christian Church in this country and throughout the

That an addition if ten per contour shall be made to the siveral rates of goods, wares, and marchandize, on the importation of which in American or foreign vessels a specific discrimination has not been herein already made, which after the said 30th day of June, 1816, shall be imported in ships or vessels not of the United States: Provided, That this additional duty shall not apply to goods, wares, and merchandize imported in ships or vessels not of the United States, entitled by treaty or by any act or acts of Congress, to be entered in the ports of the United States, on the payment of the same duties as are paid on goods, wares, and merchandize, imported in ships or vessels of the United States.

[DRAWBACKS.]

SECT. 4 And be it further enacted. That there shall be allowed a drawback of the duties, by this act imposed, on goods, wares, and merchandize imported into the United States, upon the exportation thereof within the time, and in the manner prescribed by the existing laws, subject to the following provisions, that is to say: That there shall not be an allowance of the drawback of duties in the case of goods imported in foreign vessels from any of the dominions, colonies, or possessions of any foreign power, to and with which the vessels of the United States are not permitted to go and trade; that there shall not be an allowance of the drawback of duties for the amount of the additional duties by this act imposed on goods imported in vessels not of the United States; that there shall not be an allowance of the drawback in the case of foreign dried and pickled fish. and other salted provisions, fish oil or playing cards; that there shall be deducted and retained from the amount of the duties on goods exported with the benefit of drawback, (other than spirits) two and a half per centum; and that there shall be retained in the case of spirits exported with the benefit of drawback, two cents per gallon upon the quantity of spirits, and also three per centum on the amount of duties payable on the importation thereof. But, nevertheless, the provisions of this act shall not be deemed in anywise to impair any rights and privileges, which have been or may be acquired by any foreign nation under the laws and treaties of the United States, upon the subject of exporting

[EXPORTATION BONDS.]

SECT. 5. And be it further enacted, That after the 30th day of June next, in all cases of entry of merchandize, for the benefit of drawback, the time of twenty days shall be allowed from the date of the entry, for giving the exportation bonds for the same: Provided, That the exporter shall, in every other particular, comply with the regulations and formalities, heretofore established for entries of exportation for the benefit of drawback.

[TONNAGE DUTY.]

SECT. 6. And be it further enacted, That the duty on the tonnage of vessels, and the bounties, advances, and drawbacks in the case of exporting pickled fish, of the fisheries of the United States, in the case of American vessels employed in the fisheries, and in the case of exporting sugar refined within the United States, shall be, and continue the same as the existing law provides: Provided always, That this provision shall not be deemed in any wise to impair any rights and privileges, which have been, or may be acquired by any foreign nation, under the laws and treaties of the United States, relative to the duty of tonnage on vessels.

[COLLECTION LAWS SAME AS FORMERLY.] Sect. 7. And be it further enacted, That the existing laws shall extend to, and be in force for the collection of the duties imposed by this act on goods, wares, and merchandise imported into the United States; and for the recovery, collection, distribution, and remission of all fines, penalties, and forfeitures, and for the allowance of the drawbaoks and bounties by this act authorized, as fully and effectually as if every regulation, restriction, penalty, forfeiture, provision, clause, matter and thing, in the existing laws contained, had been inserted in, and re-enacted by this act, and that all acts and parts of acts, which are contrary to this act, and no more, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

WNIVERSITY AT CAMBRIDGE, OR HAR-VARD COLLEGE.

The General Court of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay, in Sept. 1636, appropriated £ 400 for a School or College within the Government; and appointed and named six Magistrates, and six Elders to order the College. In 1637, they voted that the College should be erected at Newtown. In the year following, they changed the name of Newtown to Cambridge, and in March, 1638-9 enacted that the College to be built at Cambridge, should be called Harvard College, in honour of the Rev. John Harvard, who had bequeathed to it £779:17:2, with his library. In the year 1642, the General Court established the Board of Overseers, to consist of the Governor, Deputy-Governor, for the time being, all the Magistrates of the jurisdiction, with the teaching Elders of the six next adjoining towns; who were invested with power to make statutes and laws for the government of the College, and to dispose and manage its funds.

In May, 1650, the Charter of the Corporation was granted; said Corporation to consist of a President, five Fellows and a Treasurer, styled the President and Fellows of Harvard College. By this Charter, the Corporation procuring the presence of the Overseers, and by their counsel and consent, have power to fill vacancies in their own body. They are authorized to receive and hold real estate, not exceeding the value of £ 500 pr.ann. and any goods and sums of money whatsoever; and to make conclusive bargains for lands and tenements, &c. They are to choose and remove officers, and make orders and by-laws for the carrying on the work of the College; provided the said orders be allowed by the Overseers. By an act of the Court in 1637, called an Appendix to the Charter, the acts of the President and Feilows have immediate force and effect; they being responsible for the same to the Overseers. The Constitution of the Commonwealth recognizes and confirms the powers of the Corporation and Overseers of Harvard College or the University in Cambridge, pointing out the successors to the former Overseers, and reserving to the Legislature of the State such control over the government of the College, as was possessed by the Legislatur? of the late Province. By an act of the Legislature in Summary of the Method of Treatment to be used with Persons apparently dead from Drowning, &c.

The RESUSCITATIVE PROCESS, recommended by the Humane Society.

CONVEY the person to the nearest convenient house with his head raised; thrip and dry him as quick as possible: clean the mouth and nofferls from froth and mud. If a child, let him be placed between two perfons naked, in a hot bed. If an adult, lay him on a hot blanket or hed, and in cold weather, near a fire; in warm weather the air should be treely admitted into the room. The body is next to be gently rubbed with warm woolen cloths, frinkled with fpirits, if at hand, otherwife dry. A heated warming pan may be now lightly moved over the back, properly covered with a blanker; and the body, if of a child, is to be gently thook every few minutes. Whilft these means are using, let a cyller of warm water, with as much common falt as it will diffolve, be thrown into the bowels. Bathe the breaft with not rum; and perful in the use of these means for several hours. If no figns of life thould then appear, let the body be kept warm feveral hours longer, with hot bricks, or vellels of bot water, applied to the palms of the hands and foles of the feet; and this for a longer or fhorter time, as the circumstances of the case may dictate.

The too cuffomary method of rolling on a barrel, fufpending by the feet, and every violent mode of agitation, particularly in removing the body from the water, should be most carefully avoided.

To reflore breathing, introduce the pipe of a bellows (when no apparatus is at hand) into one of the noftrils, the other and mouth being closed; inflate the lungs, until the breaft is a little raifed; mouth and noftrils must then be let tree. Repeat this process until life appear.

Electricity is recommended to be early employed by judicious practitioners.

General Observations - Resuscitation.

On the dawn or first indication of returning life, the prudent practitioner will resign the office of Art to Nature. It is evident that Art has contributed her share, by enabling Nature to struggle with the immediate cause of oppression. It is in safe this judicious blending of Nature with Art that gives to the latter all its efficacy.

On figns of returning life.

A tea-spoonful of warm water may be given; and if swallowing be returned, warm wine or diluted brandy. The patients must be laid in a warm bed, and if disposed to sleep, they will generally awake perfectly restored.

The plans above recommended are to be used three or four hours. It is an abfurd and vulgar opinion, to suppose persons irrecoverable, because life does not soon make its appearance.

Bleeding never to be employed, unless by the direction of a physician.

THE GENERAL REGISTRY OFFICE

Is an establishment important to strangers as well as citizens. It is of recent date, and the only one of the kind ever formed in New-England. It is an Office through which any kind of estate or property, such as houses and tenements of any sort; farms, tracts of land, ships, exchange, and property of almost any description, may be bought, sold, let, hired or exchanged; an Office through which strangers and foreigners can obtain such advice and information, houses or jodeings, and assistants, as may be wanted; where also the strang r. on arriving in town, can leave his name and place where to be found, that in case any thing unforeseen should befal his family, or property, after leaving his home, which might require his immediate attention, he could with certainty and readmess be informed of it; and where, likewise, are drawn Deeds, Leases, Wills, Agreements, Petitions, Charterparties, and ad other Writings, which may be desired.—It is at No. 2, Water Street, near Cornhill, Boston, -and is conducted by S. P. Heywood.

By the Report of a Committee, dated October, 1817, on the state of Schools in Boston, in do by the authority of the town, it appears, that there are one hundred sixty-two private schools, of various descriptions, in which 4132 children attend, who are between the age of 4 and 14 years. The annual expense of these private schools is 49,154 dollars. Of this sum, the expense of the schools for children between the age of 4 and 7, is 18,911 dollars. Two hundred eighty-three children, between 4 and 7 years of age, do not attend any school. Two hundred forty-three children, above 7 years of age, do not attend any school. In the schools maintained at the public expense, 2365 children are instructed—1579 boys, 786 girls.

M: Parterson, Director of the Mint, reported to the President in January, 1817; that in 1816, there were coined 2,888,134 cents, 47,150 Half Dollars, and 20,003 Dollars.— Potal, 36,785 dollars, 57 cents.

acknowledge their obligations to their correspondents in different counties. They regret that in some instruces their communications were not received in season to apply alterations in the proper place. This difficulty, however, is partially obvitted by corrections in the Appendix. It is respectfully solicited, that communications for 1819 be forwarded as early in September next as possible, or before that time. That some errors should occur in such a publication will not be surprizing to any one, who notices the extensive lists of names which it contains, and the vicissitudes to which each individual is constantly fiable.
